

2020 PHILADELPHIA FLOWER SHOW

plus Longwoods Gardens

Sat. March 7th to Tues. March 10th, 2020

Four days/ three nights

PHILADELPHIA FLOWER SHOW: “Riviera Holiday” will be the spectacular theme for the 2020 Philadelphia Flower Show – the largest indoor flower show in the world! We can spend a full day seeing the amazing landscape gardens, viewing the hundreds of competing exhibits plus there are over 400 vendor booths to meander through.

LONGWOOD GARDENS www.longwoodgardens.org - is one of the world’s premier horticultural destinations. In spring, we experience the dazzling world of orchids as the Conservatory is transformed into a lush oasis showcasing the divas of the plant world. Longwood’s Conservatory is one of the world’s great greenhouse structures. It shelters 20 indoor gardens and 5,500 types of plants. We also allow plenty of time to stroll the outside gardens (over 1,000 acres) and tour the DuPont House.

If art is your passion, we can arrange for you to:

- a) visit the world-renowned Barnes Foundation OR b) the Philadelphia Museum of Art

The Barnes Foundation houses one of the most important private art collections in the world. 181 Renoirs, 69 Cezannes, 46 Picassos, 59 Matisse, 21 Soutines, as well as innumerable Impressionist and Post-Impressionist works adorn its walls. It has been estimated that the Barnes collection is worth as much as 45 billion dollars. This astounding collection is considered to be the best in the world.

The Philadelphia Museum of Art features: The world’s largest and most important collection of works by Marcel Duchamp; The greatest collection of sculpture by Constantin Brancusi outside Europe; The finest public collection of Auguste Rodin’s sculpture in the United States; Superb Impressionist and Post-Impressionist paintings, including Paul Cézanne’s The Large Bathers, Vincent van Gogh’s Sunflowers, and important paintings by Édouard Manet, Claude Monet, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Camille Pissarro, and Edgar Degas
