PRESENTS

PORTUGAL

February 25th to March 19th, 2025

Portugal's Algarve Province, with its magnetic Moorish appeal has become a Mecca for snowbirds trying to escape the harsh reality of winter. It's also one of Europe's most picturesque and friendly holiday destinations. The Algarve is what most of us envision the Mediterranean to be. The whitewashed villages cascade into the sea. Cobblestoned streets are lined with outdoor cafes, bistros, wine bars, and markets full of fresh fruits and vegetables. The weather is wonderfully spring-like and invigorating.

Albufeira is the largest, liveliest and most energetic of the resort towns that line southern Portugal's beautiful Algarve coastline. Albufeira provides stunning beaches, a glorious climate, and a vast selection of restaurants.

Within the charming and historic streets of the "Old Town" there are over one hundred different restaurants and bars. There is so much to love about Albufeira, and this has transformed the once peaceful fishing village into the Algarve's most popular holiday destinations – that caters to the long-stay vacationers who just want to relax.
